The Key Holder of Death and Hell Charles R. Tidwell, 2009-11 Charles Tidwell was clinically dead for twenty minutes after suffering a cardiac arrest. During this time, his spirit and soul departed his physical body and were taken to Hell. He witnessed demons standing at his feet and heard them planning his torture, while lying on a cold slab in a very dark chamber of Hell. Before the demons could carry out their torment, the key holder of death and Hell entered the chamber and unlocked the door of both death and Hell. He then carried the spirit and soul of Charles out of Hell and returned them to his physical body in order to live again. Since this encounter, demons have attacked and harassed him to this very day. Angels have protected and guided him throughout his lifetime, sometimes through visions and God-sent dreams. All these encounters and more are described in detail in the book. The book also reveals the following: What it feels like to die. How it feels when your spirit and soul leave your body. What the demons in Hell looked like. How death entered the world. Why Hell has different compartments. Why Lucifer was thrown from Heaven to Earth. How demons operate in the physical world. What happens in the immediate afterlife? What happens in the eternal afterlife? How a resurrected body is designed. Charles Tidwell has studied scriptures about death and the afterlife for twenty years. He has lived through three cardiac arrests plus two additional heart attacks. He has given testimonies in several churches in Louisiana on the subject of death and Hell. Charles was in the automobile business for 30 years, owning a Chevrolet dealership and several pre-owned car dealerships. He and his wife Christy were raised in Louisiana but now reside in Texas.
